

Web Developer & Technical Director

Professional Experience

Boston University

Assistant Director: Development

Nov '11 - Dec '22

Senior Web Developer

May '16 - May '18

Web Developer III

July '15 - May '16

Web Developer II

May '13 - July '15

Web Developer I

Nov '11 - May '13

Isobar - Web Developer

Oct '10 - Nov '11

Education

New England Institute of Art

Bachelor of Science, 2010

Web Design & Interactive Media

Concentration in Development

Accomplishments:

- Professional Development
- Guest Speaker / Teacher & Presenter

Expertise & Experience

As a Developer

- Develop Websites/WordPress Themes
 - + WordPress theme frameworks & child themes
 - + WordPress multisite
 - + WP-CLI
 - + Data storage, metadata, and relationships/taxonomies
 - + Version control: Git, pull requests, Git-flow
- Develop & update plugins
- Maintain build processes: Grunt, NPM, Travis CI, Code Climate
- Scope & estimate projects from a development standpoint

Technical Skills:

- Git & GitHub
- HTML, CSS Pre-processing
- JavaScript (jQuery & React)
- PHP
- Python

As a Manager & Director

- Product management: planning, scoping, and executing University-wide offerings
- Liaise with other departments on combined initiatives and roadmaps
- Vendor relationship management: selection, coordination, communication
- Maintain code quality through code reviews and pull requests, knowledge sharing, documentation, and process
- Collaborate with project managers, designers, and content strategists to produce project timelines, budgets, and scopes of work
- Staff management: hiring, interviewing, training, mentoring, growth planning, performance reviews
 - + Create department-wide remote work guidelines for covid lockdown and beyond
 - + Foster remote relationships and collaboration
 - + Set up a Slack channel for professional development opportunities
 - + Organize and stream virtual conferences & events for the department.
 - + Set up Treehouse account for departmental learning.
 - + Hands-on mentoring, pair programming, and career pathing.
- Champion for work culture and collaboration by organizing team outings, lunches, activities